

ADVISORY BOARD 2022-23 ACADEMIC YEAR

KEVIN BRIODY

Kevin is the Chief Marketing Officer for EdMentum, a Minneapolis-based provider of K-12 learning technology, where he is accountable for all branding, marketing, and communications. Previously, he served as Vice President of Global Marketing for Greensboro-based, Center for Creative Leadership (CCL), a non-profit focused on leadership development, and as Chief Strategy Officer at Pace Communications, a digital content and marketing agency working with leading global brands.

Kevin has a BS in History and Business Administration from the University of Oregon and an MBA from the University of Washington. Most recently, he has been serving as executive sponsor to the board of We Can Learn, an educational non-profit, and has served as a member of the advisory board for the Greensboro Chamber of Commerce.

He is the father of three current Bishop McGuinness students – Emma (12th), Grace (9th), and Sarah (9th) - all graduates of St. Pius X Catholic school in Greensboro. Kevin and his wife, Kathy, have been active supporters of Catholic education in the Triad for over a decade.

ZACHARY BRUNS '13

Zachary (Zach) Bruns is a manager at PwC in the financial services practice of their trust solutions group. He serves a range of clients, including large, accelerated filers, smaller banking clients, and private equity funds.

Zach have been a member of the Alumni Board at Bishop McGuinness since 2019 and previously served on the BMCHS Advisory Board in 2018-19. He earned a BS and MS in Accounting from Clemson and is a licensed CPA.

Zach attended St. Leo's from kindergarten through 8th Grade before enrolling at Bishop. He and his wife, Brynna, also of the Class of '13, are currently expecting their first child! Both of his brothers also BMCHS alumni, and the entire Bruns family is a proud supporter of Bishop.

CHRISTOPHER DUGGAN

Christopher (Chris) Duggan currently serves as the Cayman Islands government representative to North America and is based out of Washington, DC. He is responsible for representing the interests of the Cayman Islands, primarily with regards to financial services, investment, tourism, and development.

Chris has extensive experience as a board member of numerous organizations. His previous roles include chairman of the board for the St. Ignatius Catholic School board of Governors and Cayman Hospicecare, president of the Cayman Islands Chamber of Commerce, and member of the St. Ignatius Parish pastoral council. He was also a commandant for the police service special constabulary and was awarded the Queen's Certificate and Badge of Honor for service to the community. Chris received a BSc (honors) in business administration and marketing.

Chris and his wife, Dee, currently have two children at Bishop McGuinness – Caroline (11th) and Patrick (10th). They are active members of St. Leo the Great parish in Winston-Salem.

CAMPION HOLTON

Campion is a Senior Program Manager at Collins Aerospace in Winston Salem, NC. His responsibilities include working with the teams that manage the design, engineering, certification, production and delivery of airplane seats to major US and international airlines. Through the years he has worked with customers and colleagues from around the globe. His focus on integrity and treating everyone with respect, no matter how stressful the moment may seem, has allowed him to achieve success through a continuous series of challenges.

Campion received a well-rounded Catholic education in San Francisco, first at St. Ignatius College Preparatory and then at the University of San Francisco. He participated in various sports and activities in both high school and college. He earned his BA in Government and MBA from the University of San Francisco. After graduate school, Campion traveled the world extensively and worked in various fields, including construction management, before moving on to his current position.

Campion and his wife, Natalie, have 2 children, Nina (17) - a junior at Bishop, and Luke (14) -an eighth grader who cannot wait to be a Villain next year.

ANNE TEZAK '72

Anne is a proud 1972 graduate of Bishop McGuinness (formerly in Winston-Salem). She was a dedicated employee of AMP Incorporated (now, TE Connectivity) for 40 years. As a business process analyst for two decades, her team implemented business improvements at numerous domestic and international locations.

Anne received a BA from Chestnut Hill College, a ministry of the Sisters of St. Joseph in Philadelphia, PA. While working, she received her certification as a supply chain professional. She has served on three parish council teams, including two at Holy Cross Catholic Church in Kernersville and completed the Diocese of Charlotte's lay ministry program. Anne was recognized as an Alumni Hall of Fame inductee and has been a contributing member of Bishop's alumni board since 2018.

Anne credits BMCHS with providing a firm foundation for many of her currently held beliefs and preparing her for the numerous opportunities afforded throughout her life. She is excited to be a part of the advisory board to support the school's leadership in ensuring Bishop's continued success for years to come.

Ex-Oficio Members

ROSALIE CARR – Business Manager

Rosalie has been the business manager at Bishop McGuinness since 2015. Her previous positions included accounting project leader and controller for Mark David where she responsible for reporting and analysis and overseeing all accounting processes, issued monthly financial statements and reported to the president.

Rosalie was on the BMCHS Board of Advisors from October 2015-March 2020 and served on the board for the Carolina Evangelical Divinity School. She is a graduate of Long Island University-C.W. Post, School of Professional Accountancy, where she received a BS in Accounting.

Rosalie is a member of Immaculate Heart of Mary Church in High Point. She and her husband, Randy, have two children who graduated from Bishop – Valerie '05 and Joseph '07.

FATHER NOAH CARTER - Chaplain

Father Carter is a priest of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Charlotte and currently serves as the pastor of Holy Cross Catholic Church and chaplain of Bishop McGuinness. He has been blessed to serve in several parochial schools and firmly supports the continued development of Catholic education.

Father Carter has been a member of the board of trustees for Room at the Inn in Greensboro and currently serves as board chair. He previously served on the school board at Sacred Heart Catholic School in Salisbury.

His positions in schools throughout the diocese have included parish curate at Sacred Heart, Our Lady of Grace, and St. Mark, Latin and Religion teacher, and high school chaplain.

TIFFANY EHMIG – Faculty Representative/Counselor

Tiffany brings her experience as a teacher, counselor and administrator to the Bishop McGuinness Catholic High School Advisory Board. She received a BA in mathematics and education from the University of Scranton and a master's degree in Education with a concentration in School Counseling at William Paterson University. Tiffany completed the Post-Master's Program in School Administration at The University of North Carolina Greensboro and holds a North Carolina Principal's License.

Tiffany was part of the Blessed Sacrament School (Burlington) faculty serving as Assistant Principal, STEM Coordinator and math teacher. She served as the school representative on the Advisory Board and the Blessed Sacrament Church Parish Council meetings. Tiffany led the accreditation process for BSS to be a Model STEM School of Distinction, was published in NCEA's magazine, Momentum and was the lead speaker for STEM workshops at numerous conferences. She is a recipient of the Middle School STEM Teacher of the Year award by the North Carolina Student Academy of Sciences.

Tiffany is a mother of four and her two younger children are lifelong Catholic school attendees and current students at Bishop McGuinness HS – Grace (11th) and Devon (9th). She, her husband John, and family live in Burlington.

DR. JARED RASHFORD – Head of School

Dr. Rashford (Jared) joined Bishop in June of 2021 after a national search for the next Head of School. He brings more than 20 years' experience as a teacher, department chair and administrator. He holds a doctorate in teaching and learning from Georgia State University, a master's degree in education from Wake Forest University, and a bachelor's degree in biology and Spanish from Duke University.

Jared has received numerous awards throughout his career including the Hayden-Waltz Outstanding Dissertation Award from Georgia State University and the Marcellus Waddill Excellence in Teaching Award from Wake Forest University. He has served on academic and advisory boards for both public and private schools and participated in the development of accreditation reports and strategic plans.

Jared and his wife, Amanda, have five children: two in college, two at Bishop – Mary (12th) and James (10th) - and one at Our Lady of Grace Catholic School in Greensboro. They are parishioners at St. Paul the Apostle in Greensboro.

ALAIN TOURET – Administrative Representative

Alain moved to the United States of America in 2002, after spending 13 years in the French military. From 2002 to 2019, he taught French at Bishop McGuinness Catholic High School. During this time, he also moderated the school Student Council for seven years and coached volleyball for 5 years. Since 2019, he has served as the Dean of Students.

Alain served as chair of the academic committee on the Bishop school board for 18 months during Mr. Repass' leadership. He received a BA in physical and human Geography from the university of Paris, France. He went to two military schools and spent 18 months at the French National School of Geographic Sciences.

Hired at Bishop in 2002 for one year, Alain loved the Bishop McGuinness community and decided to stay. His wife works for the Guilford County school system, and they have two daughters and one son.

CRYSTAL KOURY – Assistant Superintendent